

Welcome to the Creve Coeur Business Newsletter. You provided your email address to the City of Creve Coeur to receive business communications. This is an email newsletter on items of interest to the business community.

Beautification awards for two local businesses

Congratulations to Pastries of Denmark and Barnes-Jewish West County Hospital for their winning entries in the 6th Biennial Beautification Contest Awards. The contest, sponsored by the City's Horticulture, Environment and Beautification Committee (HEB), is a friendly competition designed to recognize businesses and residents dedicated to beautification and landscaping efforts in Creve Coeur.

Award Category	Name & Address
Best Commercial	Pastries of Denmark 12613 Olive Blvd.
Best Institutional	Barnes-Jewish West County Hospital 12634 Olive Blvd.
Best Subdivision/Condominium Entrance or Common Ground	Enclave Bellerive Subdivision at Ladue & Mason roads
Best Use of Small Space	Lizz Chamberlain 12764 Conway Rd.
Best Curb Appeal	Steve Sigmund 12467 Royal Manor Dr.
Best in the City	George Dirkers 26 North Walling Dr.

Fran Cantor, chair of the HEB, said "All the winners did an outstanding job of highlighting their properties using an attractive combination of plantings. We appreciate the time and effort they took to beautify the environment in a way everyone visiting Creve Coeur can enjoy."

Business and residential award winners will be recognized at the City of Creve Coeur Holiday Open House on Tuesday, December 4, 2012 at the Government Center.

Best Commercial: Pastries of Denmark

Best Institutional: Barnes-Jewish West County Hospital

Best in the City: 26 North Walling Dr. (G. Dirkers)

If you would like more information about any topic, please contact Sharon Stott, Public Information Officer & Management Analyst, at 314-442-2081.